Join us for the 2025 Georgia Angus Association Annual Banquet on March 1st!

We are excited to bring back the Georgia Angus Association Annual Banquet! On March 1st, 2025, we are hosting our annual cocktail attire banquet at The Classic Center in Athens, Georgia. We hope this event will bring together Angus breeders from across the state to reconnect with old friends and make new connections while enjoying a delicious prime rib dinner. We look forward to a night of growing friendships, knowledge, and our association! Tickets are on pre-sale now for $75 each till February 24th. Tickets purchased after this date will be an additional $10 per ticket. You must be a current Georgia Angus member to buy tickets. Tickets are available online by scanning the code below or by returning the following form:

Raegan Gilbert Earns Junior Silver Award

Raegan Gilbert, Lula, Ga., has earned the National Junior Angus Association's (NJAA) Silver award.

Gilbert is the 18-year-old daughter of Ron and Amber Gilbert. She is a member of the NJAA, and the Georgia Junior Angus Association, where she serves as director.

Gilbert has participated in state, regional and national shows and showmanship contests and has submitted DNA samples for Genomic Profile Testing through Angus Genetics Inc. (AGI). The Silver award is the second level of the NJAA Recognition Program that began in 1972. Junior Angus breeders must apply for the award, then meet point requirements in many areas of participation before receiving the honor. Applicants are evaluated in areas of junior Angus association activities and leadership, participation in showmanship, contests and shows, using performance testing to improve their herd and their progress in producing and merchandising Angus cattle.
